

A close-up, low-angle shot of the Statue of Liberty's head and crown, rendered in a monochromatic green color. The crown's spikes radiate upwards against a light, hazy background. The statue's face is the central focus, looking slightly upwards and to the right.

WE WERE STRANGERS ONCE...

Explore the ultimate Passover story through a series of three programs focusing on the immigrant & refugee experiences with a Jewish lens...

More info: www.bethambaltimore.org

WE WERE STRANGERS ONCE...

April 1st, Post-Kiddush Lunch

Join a conversation about relating and incorporating the latest developments in American immigration & refugee policy into your Passover seder.

April 20th, 7pm at Beth Am

*Standing with Immigrants and Refugees:
An Evening of Discussion and Action*

Learn with speakers-

HIAS, the Esperanza Center, Immigration Outreach Service Center, Refugee Youth Project, International Rescue Committee and others.

Take Action with-

Adelante Latina!, Casa de Maryland, Human Rights First, Lutheran Immigration & Refugee Service, Soccer without Borders, and more...

RSVP to: Josh@bethambaltimore.org

May 13, Post-Kiddush Lunch

led by Towson University professor, Dr. Deborah Barer

Drawing on a Talmudic discussion, this class will explore the risks, challenges and potential benefits of building walls between individuals and communities.

Beth Am Synagogue

2501 Eutaw Place

Baltimore, Maryland 21217

